CITY IN BRIEF.

The Federal Grand Jury will return about thirty indictments this morning. The Nightingale Association will hold a meeting at the Plymouth Church to-morrow.

Charles Cohen, a nine year old boy, is missing from his home at 654 South Illinois street. The pocket book lost in this city by Sig.

Arkey, of Dayton, contained $130 besides several notes. Henry Maur, the ex-Councilman, is an avowed candidate for Alderman in the Secend Aldermanic District. A lad in charge of an official from Bluffton, en route to the House of Refuge, made his escape yesterday morning. Bids for the widening and straightening of the State ditch will be opened at the Council meeting on Monday night. Burglars entered the residence of Charles Rafford, on Huron street, night before last, but were frightened off before they secured any booty. A dispatch was received yesterday from Cleburne, Tex , saying that G. W. Hensley, of this city, who took poison on Saturday, had died Tursday. Adjutant General Koontz has returned from Mobile. He says that the Richardson Zenaves won no prize, as was heretofore stated, as they did not participate in the drill, having no Lieutenants. The Police Superintendent at rell-call last night instructed the patrolmen to bring in all suspicious characters loitering about the streets. The loitering ordinance will be more strictly enforced than heretofore. The police authorities have received a telegram stating that the dead body of an Indianapolis peddler named McGuire has been found in a swamp near Madison, Fla. He is supposed to have been murdered by three negroes, who are under arrest.

There is to be a union service of all the Epigeopalian Churches at Christ Church this morning in honor of the Ascension of the favior. The early Christians made as much of Ascension Day, the fortieth day after Easter, as they did of Christmas Day. Christ Church ought to be lilled.

Miss Smiley gives the last Bible reading of the series at Christ Church to night. She goes next to Vincennes. Prayer tervice and questions at 4:30 p. m.

Authority has been given to Receiver Rand to purchase the Morrison property, on Circle street, at a cost of $30,000, the purchase money to be applied on the indebtedness of Mrs. Morrison, as one of the partners in the Indiana Banking Company.

A DANGEROUS EXPERIMENT.

He Doesn't Want Any More.

D. E. Turbis, of the I., B. and W. Road, living on Bloomington street in West Indianapolis, had an experience yesterday evening which might have cost him his life. He had been working in his garden during the day, and while planting castor beans in the afternoon he ate of them freely, giving some to his dog from time to time. This was about 3 o'clock. About 6 o'clock he ate his supper, and within an hour he began to vomit freely; the dog was affected in the same way. Mr. Turbis suspected that this was the result of eating the beans, but did not think it necessary to call a physician till about 10 o'clock, when his pain became to intense that he became alarmed and a physician was sent for. At 12 o'clock he was resting a little better, but after that hour he continued to vomit until it almost threw him into convulsions. During the earlier part of the night he vomited a little blood, and his face was congested, showing that his system had received a severe shock, but having a strong constitution it is now probable that he will recover in a day or two. He said he did not think of the beans producing any bad effects, and had beans producing any bad effects, and had eaten the secondary bulls of the bean. He was therefore greatly suprised to learn that three beans constitute a violent emetic, while he had esten not less than a dozen. He is still suffering intense pain in his legs and back. The dog bas lost its ambition, and would roll over and die with a little encouragement. Mr. Turbis thinks he will destroy the twenty-four hills of beans as soon as they appear above ground. He has been peculiarly unfortunate during the past year, baying been | Theo. Prefflin. the victim of three accidents which have confined him to his bed, two of which were railroad accidents.

A Question of Interest. Some time ago W. C. Robinson, Treasurer of Switzerland County, was enjoined from collecting the special school tax, the Court holding that the law authorizing Township Trustees or Councils of cities and towns to levy such a tax was unconstitutional. Mr. Robinson has taken an appeal to the Sapreme Court, and at the request of State Superintendent Holcombe, Attorney General Hord will appear in bahalf of the State, and this morning he filed a brief in the case. The point raised is a very important one, as it in-volves the right of municipal corporations and townships to levy a special tax for school purposes, without the precessis from which the schools could not be maintained.

Accident to a Fireman.

An alarm was rung in from the tower last evening, the box struck being number 19, situated at the corner of John and Archer streets. The deparament responded, but dis covered that the fire was some distance outside of the city limits. By some mischance the tongue of one of the wagons struck the Clifford avenue bridge, breaking the tongue and throwing a fireman by the name of Feibert against the engine. He received several bruises upon the head and breast, but is not thought to be seriously injured. The fire proved to be a burning barn, but to whom it belonged could not be learned.

U. S. Physio-Meds.

The American Association of Physio-Medical Physicians and Surgeons will meet in this city May 19, to continue in session until the business of the association is completed. Physicians and surgeons from all parts of the United States will be in attend-ance, and much valuable work is expected. Arrangements for reduced rates will be made with hotels and railroads. W. A. Fisher and N. D. Woodard, of this city, and W. A. Spurgeon, of Muncie, are the Committee of Arrangements.

Prize Essay.

The committee consisting of President George P. Brown, of the State Normal; Professor S. L. Jones, Superintendent of the Indianapolis schools, and Professor James Baldwin, of Rushville, yesterday awarded the Hadley prize cyclopaedia to W. W. Par-sons, of Terre Haute, for the best essay submitted, at the request of Mr. Hadley. The prize consisted of a handsomely-bound edition of Johnson's Universal Cyclopædia, valued at $42. The judges were unanimou in their award.

Diamond Robbery.

While en route from San Francisco to | 299 South Illinois street. Cincinnati, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Evans, formerly of this city, was robbed of diamonds valued at $4 000. The jewelry was very vainable, $4,000 being estimated as its cost. The matter was placed in the hands of the pailroad company, and the detective system of the Central Pacific Railroad set at work. Yesterday Mr. Evans received a dispatch tating that the diamonds and the robber were in charge at Mojave, Cal.

ALBERT CAL

Among all the ladies who aspire to a pair of French Kid Button Boots, very few are tortunate in securing a pair, owing to the prevalent false impression that it is necessary to pay a high and outrageous price, or else buy an American Kid. At high price shoe stores you of course pay enormous profits, but it is unnecessary. Now, although we advertise principally Child's Shoes at 12c, worth 45c, and Misses Shoes at 85c, worth $1 25, it does not necessarily preclude the idea of our having other grades. While the assertion may seem startling to those having the latter impression, neverthless it is a fact we keep in stock as fine goods as the United States can produce. We handle the famous E. C. Burt Shoe, and other equally famous makes. You would not suppose we could self a fine French Kid Shoe at $2 50, worth nearly twice the money. If it seems improbable, come and see for yourself. Young ladies who wish fine shoes, neat and dressy, to wear with their new spring suits, step in and get a nice pair of those French Kids. We will surprise you, then you can surprise your friends. Ask also to be shown the Mat Top Button Boots at $2 00; they are beauties
